

NYSCHP Internet Use Policy

NYSCHP provides Internet, email, website development, and social media access for business use. All communications and information shared through these systems must be professional, accurate, and kept confidential. Personal use or unauthorized sharing of NYSCHP information is not permitted. Only approved individuals may post or update official website or social media content.