V. E. INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS

The installation ceremony reminds the members of the aims and ideals of the chapter and challenges the new officers to lead the members toward these goals.

The ceremony may be conducted by a past president, NYSCHP president, a visiting ASHP officer or staff member, the Executive Director of NYSCHP or the retiring president. A brief statement of the accomplishments of the retiring officers and the objectives to be met by the new officers may precede the oath of office. All participants in the installation ceremony must be adequately briefed so that it will run smoothly.

The following ceremony should serve as a guide for assistance to chapters. It is purposely thorough in order to provide the widest possible scope. Portions may be omitted or interchanged. The installing officer should, upon being introduced, take his place at the lectern. The incoming officers should be introduced and then aligned in front of and to one side of the lectern. The highest-ranking officer-elect should be nearest the speaker and then the others in descending rank.
