Who is the Royal Counties Society?

History

The Royal Counties of New York Society of Hospital Pharmacists (RCNYSHP), founded in 1988 at Brookdale Hospital in Brooklyn, is one of the largest chapters of the New York State Council of Health-system Pharmacists (NYSCHP).

Mission

The Royal Counties Society shares the mission of the NYSCHP, “to represent its members and advance pharmacy as an essential component of health care. The Council provides leadership and resources to promote quality pharmaceutical services directed at appropriate medication therapy and positive patient outcomes.”

Teamwork

The Royal Counties Society works to enhance pharmacy practice in Kings, Queens, and Richmond Counties, and the state of New York.

Who are our members?

Our diverse membership includes pharmacy administrators, staff and clinical pharmacists, pharmacy residents and students, pharmacy technicians, industry personnel, and others interested in pharmacy practice and health care.

Our members represent over 20 hospitals and medical centers in Kings, Queens, and Richmond Counties, and two schools of pharmacy:

- ... The Arnold & Marie Schwartz College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences of Long Island University
- ... St. John’s University College of Pharmacy and Allied Health Professions
